COMPLAINTS POLICY

i.) Legal Requirement to Establish Complaints Procedure

The governing body is required to establish procedures for dealing with all complaints relating to the school including the provision of facilities or services by the school.<sup>1</sup>

The Governing Body will ensure that any third party providers offering community facilities or services through the school premises, or using school facilities, have their own complaints procedure in place so that people can complain direct to them, if necessary.

ii.) Publication and Availability of the Policy and Procedure

The policy and procedure will be publicised<sup>2</sup> in one or more of the following ways:

- the school prospectus;
- any report/communication from the governors to parents;
- the information given to new parents when their children join the school;
- the information given to the children themselves;
- the home-school agreement;
- home school bulletins or newsletters;
- documents supplied to community users including course information or letting agreements;
- a specific complaints leaflet which includes a form on which a complaint can be made;
- posters displayed in areas of the school that will be used by the public, such as reception or the main entrance;
- the school website.

The school will also provide a copy of the policy and procedure to any person upon request.

iii.) Regard to Guidance from the Secretary of State

This policy and procedure has been created having regard to the guidance produced by the Secretary of State.<sup>3</sup>

iv.) Governing Body Monitoring, Reporting and Review

As well as addressing an individual's complaints, the process of listening to and resolving complaints will contribute to school improvement.

The monitoring and review of complaints by the school and the GB can also be a useful tool in evaluating a school's performance.

Scheduled Review and Updated Guidance from the DfE

The Policy and Procedure will be reviewed every 3 years but any governor with any concerns about its operation can request that it is reviewed at any time.

The Policy and Procedure will also be reviewed in the event that new guidance or legislative changes are introduced by the Department for Education.

Governing Body Monitoring

The level and nature of complaints will be reported to the Governing Body as part of the Governing Body's role in overseeing the operation of the school.

However, the details of an unresolved complaint or a complainant's information must not be discussed by the Governing Body in case a Complaints Committee meeting needs to be held.

Governing Body Reporting and Review

The outcomes of complaints will be reported to the Governing Body for review so that the Governing Body can:

- examine the effectiveness of the Complaints Policy & Procedure and consider any improvements; and
- identify any issues that need to be addressed and consider any improvements to school policies or procedures.

v.) Local Authority (LA) Reporting

The School will meet any requests from the local authority to provide statistics on complaints so that overall monitoring can be carried out to advise all schools and the authority on improvements to practice.

The LA may also require details of any complaint and its consideration in order to answer formal enquiries from the Department for Education or others. The school will be consulted before any response to such enquiries is made.

vi.) Advice and support from Islington Council Governor Services

Advice to Headteachers and governors on the handling of complaints is available from the Islington Council Governing Body Services section for those schools which buy into this service.

vii.) Establishing a Committee to Hear Complaints and Lead Governor

The Governing Body will establish a Committee of Governors to hear any complaints made. All members of the governing body that are not members of staff should be a part of this Committee.

viii.) Informal Concerns

Staff will be trained in how to deal with informal concerns when they are approached by people with such concerns.

If informal concerns are taken seriously, it can help to resolve issues on the spot and reduce the number of concerns that turn into complaints.

Because the aim of the complaints procedure is to resolve a complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant, attempts to resolve a complaint with the complainant can and will occur at any stage during the procedure.

ix.) Unreasonable Complainants

Hanover Primary School is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the school. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

Hanover Primary School defines unreasonable complainants as 'those who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the school, hinder our consideration of their or other people's complaints'.

A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance;
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved;
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure;
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice;
- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales;
- makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced;
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds;
- repeatedly makes the same complaint, despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed;
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education;
- seeks an unrealistic outcome; or
- makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.

A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so either face-to-face, by telephone or in writing or electronically:

- maliciously;
- aggressively;
- using threats, intimidation or violence;
- using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language;
- knowing it to be false;
- using falsified information;
- publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media such as in social media websites and newspapers.

Complainants should limit the numbers of communications with a school while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues, the headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact the School causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after 6 months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. Actions taken may include banning an individual from the School.
